

Streich's wages. Had already repaid principle of loan on salary assignment.

Thomas Gross fined $50 for offering bribe to members of Schuettler's squad. Gross was taken in raid on hotel.

Mr. Albion W. Small will speak at the Grace church forum, Wabash and 15th st., Sunday, March 29. Subject: "Strength and Weakness of Socialism."

William Garby, Saginaw, Mich., borrowed money on plea of having lost purse. Got six months on rock pile.

Holdup men raided Hoops Importing Co., 4521 S. State st. Beat D. K. Hoops with guns when he refused to open safe. Frightened away.

Desk sergeants ordered back to regular police duty. Stenographers to take their place as secretaries to police captains.

Joint committee of aldermen, county commissioners and citizens inspected County Hospital. Result of investigation will be reported next week.

Nineteen relatives share in distribution of Mrs. Julie Wedele's $353,000 estate.

Lady assessors rave over wonders of millionaires' homes. But have little conception of valuation.

Mrs. Maud Sterrett wants divorce from Arthur R. Sterrett, part owner Quaker Manufacturing Co. Charges cruelty.

Karl H. Wehle has withdrawn as aldermanic candidate in First Ward. Wants to leave clear field for battle between Ald. Coughlin and Miss Drake.

Miss Lena Krzkina, 527 Kroll av., wants $600 from John B. Chiappano. Claims Chiappano's dog bit her, marring beauty.

Joseph Busch, 1637 Clybourn av., and Joseph Dowgiallo, 4558 S. Marshfield, fined $25 and costs for selling liquor to minors.

Statutory charges against Harry N. Waterfall dismissed. Waterfall married Miss Gertrude Friedlander, arrested with him.

Government after Master Plumbers' Association. May prosecute under Sherman anti-trust law.

Billboards and movies to be used by subway foes.

HE LOOKED THE PART

Judge—Let's see—what are you charged with?

Prisoner—Bigamy?

Judge—Excuse me; I might have guessed it.

THEN SHE KNOWS

Mr. Gnaggs—A woman doesn't realize the difficulties that best the reformer.

Mrs. Gnaggs—No, not until she gets married.

Paris says New York women are outdoing Parisians in indecent dresses. Paris is foolish to make that admission, if it wants our sensation-hunting tourists.